

MONEY-HUNTER WINS

HE EASILY CAPTURES THE FIRST, SECOND, AND FOURTH HEATS.

Both Horses Seem Tired Up and Make Slow Time—Three-Year-Olds to Trot To-Day.

The race trotted over at the Exposition course yesterday afternoon between Money-Hunter and Toddlers, Jr., was disappointing to all who witnessed it. That the former proved the winner was not a great surprise to the majority of those present, but it was expected that the contest would be much more spirited and that both of the horses would show greater speed.

Of the race there is really little to say except that it was won with apparent ease in the first, second, and fourth heats, in much slower time than was anticipated.

BOTH TIED UP.

The sudden change of weather seemed to have "tied up" both horses and cost them at least six or eight seconds of their speed. Money-Hunter on the 10th instant made a record in a race with ten horses at Pimlico of 2:23 and Toddlers was timed at Lynchburg in two heats better than 2:35. That track is at least three seconds slower than the one here.

Money-Hunter drew the pole in the first heat, and won as he pleased in 2:45. The second was only a repetition of the first. Time, 2:43.

Between the second and third the change of weather decided not only to change drivers but to put on much lighter front shoes. This necessitated a delay which was tiresome, particularly to those who had backed Toddlers.

DROVE HIM TO WIN.

William Bass, who drove Roanoke Maid to her record of 2:27 in the fourth heat of the race at Pimlico, which she won in such splendid style, piloted the little horse in the third heat, which after a superb finish down the stretch he captured in 2:40. Just before swinging into the straight Toddlers cast one of his shoes. The hunt for a shoe and the time lost in replacing it consumed at least three quarters of an hour.

When they made their appearance for the fourth heat there were a great many horsemen (7) who predicted that Toddlers' race, but before the eighth pole was reached Toddlers made a strange blunder which lost him all chance of winning the heat, though Bass settled him and gave Hunter a good but hopeless chase home. Hunter didn't hobble in the mile, which was trotted in 2:36—last half in 1:19.

MONEY-HUNTER.

Money-Hunter was purchased in Indiana four years ago by F. Taylor and S. B. Nelson. He is by Fleetwing Ray, and out of a mare by the now famous Blue Bull. He is a dark-bay horse with black points. The entire coat is in perfect condition. He has a strong resemblance to the great Palo Alto, 2:12. He was driven in his race yesterday, also at Baltimore by Mr. W. B. Mitchell, now of this city.

While he put $500 to his credit as the owner, Mr. Nelson, it is safe to say that the layman on the grounds was Jack Strang, his faithful groom and ardent admirer, Jack Strang.

SUMMARY.

Money-Hunter..... 1 2 1 2
Toddlers, Jr..... 2 2 1 2
2:45, 2:43, 2:40, 2:36.

COUNTS TO TROT TO-DAY.

There will be a trotting race at the Exposition grounds this afternoon at 3 o'clock, in which much interest is felt, though the amount at stake is not large.

It will be between three-year-olds, male heats, best three in five, and is a friendly contest, so to speak, designed to test the speed of the colts that will trot.

The following are the entries: Nellie J., a brown mare entered by S. T. Perkins, Jr., sired by Woodburn Hamilton; bay colt Woodburn, Jr., owned by J. F. Cavado and entered by J. C. Walton; bay mare Mand Lee, owned by W. C. Otey and entered by Otto Siegfried.

MISS EFFIE ELLISER.

She Scores a Triumphant Success at the Academy—A Fair Rebel.

Miss Effie Elliser, who won such enmity by her portrayal of the role of Hazel Kirk, demonstrated to the appreciative audience that she is a most capable actress. Her performance as an artist, the play was Miss Manning, an American comedy, with the scenes laid in Virginia, and introduced the gifted actress in the title role, that of a laughing, romping, mischievous little maid, who leads a string of lovers such a chase and occasions so many fun-provoking situations, that aside from the hearty round of applause and smiling faces that greeted her first entrance, Miss Elliser kept the audience captivated with herself and the play from the beginning to the end.

The supporting company is good. Mr. Frank Weston, as "the president of a hay-fever association," convulsed the audience, his make-up and manner being excellent. Messrs. John A. Elliser, Dempsey, Lester, Holland, and Wheelock, and the Misses Lillian Hadley, Louisa Porter and Lillian Hadley, together formed a coterie of artistic players. To-night Miss Elliser will appear in "The Goodwives," which will also be given at the Wednesday matinee. The engagement will close to-morrow night with a repetition of the comedy "Miss Manning."

THE MILITARY MAN PLAY "A FAIR REBEL."

The thrilling comedy drama "A Fair Rebel," which deals with episodes of the late war, will be presented at the Richmond Theatre to-night and to-morrow matinee and night. The play has been produced with marvelous results in New York, Boston, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Memphis, and Chicago. There are many powerful and dramatic scenes in "A Fair Rebel." The drilling to "Red Hell" and the tunneling to the street and liberty are realistic in the extreme. Fanny Gillette, whose performance with Louis James's company last year excited so great admiration, has the principal role in this play. Indeed, the play is reported to be one of the marvels of the present season. The whole structure revolves in less than six seconds.

Referred to a Commissioner.

Judge Leake has entered a decree referring the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical Society cause to a commissioner of the Chancery Court to take an account of the debts of the society, their priority, and other matters appertaining thereto, to be reported upon at the next term of court.

This practically ends the case of the stockholders against the society in the latter's favor.

Good Prices for Lumber Lots.

The sale of Lumber lots in the West End yesterday afternoon by Messrs. H. L. Staples & Co., was quite largely attended. A number of lots were sold at good prices. Those on the Grove avenue brought as high as $23 and $25 per front foot.

Disabilities Removed.

The Governor yesterday removed the political disabilities of John P. Hamilton, of Annerburg county.

Grabbed the Watch and Ran.

Mr. William Snellings had his silver watch stolen from him about 11 o'clock last night. He was coming along the side of Ninth street nearest the Capitol when a negro approached and asked a trifling question, and reaching for Mr. Snellings' pocket grabbed his time-piece and ran off.

The police were notified, but at 1 o'clock this morning the thief had not been arrested.

TO ENTERTAIN THE ENGINEERS.

The Sub-Committee Sends Out a Circular Asking for Funds.

The sub-committee consisting of Messrs. S. W. Travers, J. L. Anderson, L. D. Brown, and J. B. Clarke, Northwest corner, Lavin Jones, W. R. Trigg, and Allan Talbot appointed to devise ways and means for the entertainment of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, which is expected to arrive here on the 15th of November 11th, held a meeting yesterday afternoon and adopted a circular which will be sent to some of the leading business-men of the city.

The committee says: We feel assured you will fully coincide with us in thinking that it is due alike to the high standing and influence of the society and to our reputation as a city for hospitality and enterprise that the members of this society and our leading citizens should be brought into the most intimate and friendly relations possible during the brief season of the convention at Richmond, and that this should be accomplished by attentions, in addition to the programme arranged by the resident members of the society and the official courtesies of the chief State and city authorities.

It also goes without saying that these are the men upon whose judgment and report and under whose direction capital and labor are applied to the development of the natural resources of the country, and that any section is fortunate that gains, at almost any cost, a favorable opinion and good will of the members of this organization. Such an opportunity would be eagerly sought and fully utilized by any progressive city, and we feel confident that the citizens of Richmond will agree that she cannot afford and will not consent to be untrue to her manifest interest on this occasion.

It should also be clearly understood that the iron manufacturers are not the only ones interested in this question. Indeed the interest of professional courtesy. Indeed the presence of such a body here may be productive of future competition for them. But every capitalist, merchant, real estate owner, business man, and every citizen interested in the growth of Richmond industrially or the increase of her population, so largely dependent upon industries, is directly and vitally concerned in having these gentlemen most favorably impressed with the city.

The paper closes by saying that some member of the committee will call early next week on each of the persons addressed with the hope of receiving a contribution commensurate with the object which they have in view. The sub-committee will report to the general committee Thursday evening.

It is expected that the society will in session here will elect about twenty-five new members, among them the men of Carnegie, Phillips & Co., of Pittsburgh.

CITY CREDIT COURT.

The full term of the City Circuit Court commenced yesterday afternoon and there was a great deal of unimportant routine work done.

John Warner, a native of Prussia, was admitted as a citizen of the United States.

Some half dozen motions of the Commonwealth against the sureties, executors, &c., of John E. Hamilton, late treasurer of Augusta county, were docketed. The amount being sued for is $895.52.

Mr. B. Carter Scott qualified to practice in this court.

Return of the Governor.

Governor McKinney has returned from his old home in Farmville, where he attended the agricultural fair recently held at that place. His Excellency was warmly greeted by his old friends, and had a pleasant visit. Mrs. McKinney and her daughter were expected home yesterday afternoon.

During the absence of the Governor had talk with one of the best-informed Democrats in the Fourth district, who assured him positively that Eggs, the Democratic candidate, would be elected.

A Baltimore Beauty in the City.

Miss Adele Horwitz and her father, Mr. Benjamin Horwitz, of Baltimore, arrived in Richmond Sunday and remained until yesterday, when they left for Farmville.

After a very pleasant stay at the Exchange and Sunday afternoon they drove up on Franklin street to see Miss May Handy, with whom the Baltimore beauty divided honors at Bar Harbor last summer. Miss Horwitz is a remarkably fine-looking lady.

Architects' Convention in Washington.

A large number of the architects of the United States will assemble in Washington to-morrow to attend the twenty-fourth convention of the American Institute of Architects. The institute is composed of chapters in the different cities of the Union. Although Richmond has no chapter, Captain M. J. Dummock and Mr. A. West are members of the institute and they will probably attend.

A High Fall.

About 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Pleasant, a son of John M. Terrell, fell from a rope upon a porch to the ground below, a distance of about fourteen feet. The boy was badly bruised, but he was not seriously injured, and was well enough to be about yesterday.

Struck Him on the Chin.

The ambulance was called at 10:50 A. M. yesterday to attend a white man at the Locomotive Works who was struck on the chin by a bar of iron flying from the chime of a steam hammer. The man left with friends.

He was an only son, a well-known and deserving young man, about twenty-three years old, and had been chosen to teach in the public school in his vicinity commencing this week.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. John Rydell Waystaff, a well-known builder residing near here, dropped suddenly dead on Friday. Heart trouble was the probable cause. He had just returned home after consulting a physician here as to his condition.

A FIVE-TIME BURGLAR.

Our County Court meets to-day and will be in session for ten days or more. There are ten Commonwealth cases to be tried for various offences. One boy will be tried on five indictments for burglary. John Irvin accessory to the murder of Captain R. C. Otey, will also be tried at this term. He has been confined in the Petersburg jail since last week.

THE OUTLOOK FOR DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS IN NOVEMBER IS MOST ASSURING. We see but one source of danger. That is the possibility of over-confidence. Over-confidence begets indifference. Indifference almost certainly follows indifference. Democracy is more to be dreaded than Republicanism. In this contest of the people, and we have the votes. It depends upon you whether you will vote or not. Address of the Chairman of the State Democratic Committee.

The Independent in Earnest—General Lee's Strength Increasing—Other Affairs.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, October 20, 1890.

Mr. Frank Hume has moved his headquarters from the Royal street, between King and Prince, and he and his lieutenants are to be found there busy with the work of the campaign. It has been denied that Mr. Hume has any idea of withdrawing from the contest, but a letter from him yesterday morning, written in the city, was intended to see it through, cost him what it may.

The news coming into this city from other quarters is to the effect that General Lee's strength is increasing daily and that he is now at the Alexandria Infirmary and is in a very critical condition. He says he was struck on the head with a weight by a negro man who was in the crowd at a fight Saturday night with Nat. Turlington, an elderly white man who has lived some years on Kellam's farm. Kellam knocked Turlington down with a stick and then went into the house and got his pistol to shoot between the men. Kellam shot Turlington, the ball passing through the hand and inflicting a very painful wound.

HE CAN HARDLY RECOVER.

The doctors say that Turlington's skull is fractured by the blow that Kellam struck him with the stick and that he can hardly recover from his injuries. Both men are about sixty years old. Kellam has lived here for many years. Kellam is considered a dangerous man when excited or under the influence of liquor.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING.

The Rev. Mr. Nelson and Wife Celebrate Their Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, Va., October 20, 1890.

The Rev. Mr. Nelson, rector of the Protestant Episcopal church of the city, and wife celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding on Saturday night. A very large number of guests were present to congratulate them, and
